TITLE I. Definition and Organization of Wyoming Antelope Hunters Protective Association, Inc

1. Name. This Organization shall be known as the Wyoming Antelope Hunters Protective Association, Inc. („Organization“) and shall be incorporated as such with the Secretary of State of the State of Indiana.
2. Purposes. The purpose of this Organization are as follows:
 - a. To protect and preserve wildlife, fish, lakes, and streams.
 - b. To promote and encourage athletics among juveniles and juvenile organizations
 - c. To encourage fellowship among members of the Organization and to own and operate a facility or facilities to afford the opportunity for personal contact, commingling and socializing among members of the Organization.
3. Limitations. These purposes shall extend only to the extent permissible of an organization described in Section 501© (7) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Service Law (the „Code“) but shall otherwise extend to the fullest extent permitted by the Indiana Nonprofit Corporation Act, as amended, (the „Act“).
4. Disposition of Assets.
 - a. The property, both negotiable and physical, is dedicated to the purposes set forth in these Bylaws, and no part of the net income or assets of this Organization shall ever inure to the benefit of any Director, Office or Member of Any Classification, if any, of this Organization, or to the benefit of any private person.
 - b. Upon dissolution of this Organization and after paying or adequately providing for the debts and obligations of the Organization, the remaining assets shall be converted to cash and be distributed to a non-profit organization selected by motion of the Board of Directors of the Organization that is legally qualified to receive such a distribution.

TITLE II. Membership.

1. Election. Persons may be elected to Membership in the Organization in two manners:
 - a. Upon a majority vote of the Organization's Board of Directors at its regularly scheduled meeting.
 - b. Upon a majority vote of the members in good standing at the Organization's annual meeting.
2. Application. In order to be considered for Membership in the Organization, prospective candidates must complete and submit an Application for membership.
3. Payments. In order to be considered for membership in the Organization, any and all applicable dues, fees, and/or assessments must be paid in full.
4. Rejection. If a person is rejected for membership, they shall be notified in writing of their rejection within 10 business days. His/her name shall not be resubmitted for a period of six (6) months from the date of rejection. Provided further, the membership Committee shall provide to the Board of Directors a recommendation of whether the rejected person should be elected to membership.
5. Suspension. The Board of Directors of the Organization may, by two-thirds (2/3) vote of the Board of Directors; suspend a person from Membership in the Organization. This suspension power is extended to all Membership classifications. The suspension period shall not exceed one (1) calendar year. A person who is suspended from membership in the Organization will be fully reinstated to their respective membership classification upon expiration of the term of suspension.
6. Expulsion. The Board of Directors of the Organization may, by two-thirds (2/3) vote of the Board of Directors expel a person from Membership in the Organization. This expulsion power is extended to all Membership classifications. A person who is expelled from membership in the Organization may not petition for reinstatement within the first thirty-six (36) months after expulsion. The expelled person must follow the application procedures as if the person had never been a Member of the Organization.
7. Appeal. Any member who either suspended or expelled under Section 2 or 3 of this provision shall have the right to appeal. The appeal must be submitted in writing within 10 business days of notice of the suspension or expulsion. The Board shall determine by a majority vote whether the appeal shall be granted or denied.

 - ii. Each appointee must be approved by a majority vote of the full board
 - c. The Election Committee is responsible for working with the secretary to oversee the election process and onboard potential board candidates
 - d. The Election Committee must submit rules for the election to the board and receive approval no later than (90) days prior to the election
 - i. If this approval is not received by (90) days prior to the election, the prior year's rules will be used instead.
 - 1 Each section of this proposed plan will be submitted individually
 - 2 If one section of rules is approved but others are not, only those sections not approved will revert to the prior year's such that if rules on the voting process are approved but a new set of deadlines is not, the newly approved voting process will stand but the prior year's deadline schedule will be used
 - e. Sections the committee must submit for the board to approve no later than 90 days prior to the election:
 - i. Timeline/deadline schedule for the election
 - 1 The Election Committee shall establish a timeline for the election process to be disseminated to the membership at least (90) days prior to the election.
 - 2 This must include processes for nomination and verification of voting eligibility
 - ii. Eligible member list (process for forming this list as well as the initial list to be posted to the membership)
 - iii. Communications plan for keeping membership informed on the process and proceedings
 - 1 Notice shall be given, by standard mail, e-mail, antelope web site, or electronic form, to each member of record entitled to vote in said election not less than twenty (20) days prior to the upcoming election.
 - iv. Voting Process
 - 1 Election period
 - 2 Casting ballots
 - a In-person
 - b Absentee

- v. Ballot counting process
 - vi. New Board Member education process
 - vii. Based on the date of the election approved by the board, the Election Committee shall designate the time, place, and duration of the election
 - f. The committee is permitted to submit for board approval additional rules outside of the above list as they see fit
3. Nomination Eligibility. Any member in good standing may have his/her name added to the ballot given they meet the following criteria
- a. They shall be a member in good standing for at least one year prior to filing to run for the Board.
 - b. They shall gather and submit 10 (ten) signatures from members in good standing of the Organization in the form of a nominating petition.
 - c. The member shall submit their nominating petitions at least 30 days prior to the election.
 - i. Should a member seek to be added to the ballot after this 30-day limit, they may still be added to the ballot given they meet all other relevant criteria and submit a petition containing supporting signatures of at least twenty percent (20%) or more of the current membership at least fifteen (15) days prior to the date of the upcoming election
4. Voting. To be eligible to vote, a member must be included on the list of eligible members generated by the Election Committee and be in good standing on the day of the election.
- a. Any board member seeking re-election to the board cannot serve as a member of the election committee or be involved with the counting of ballots on Election Day.
 - b. Those running for board seats can run no more than two consecutive full terms (currently six years total). Afterwards, a minimum period of a year should pass prior to running for another term.
 - i. However, in the event of a vacancy, the Board may select a former Board member, regardless of recency in terms of service, to fill that vacancy to serve out that commitment until the next election
 - ii. If the board does not have enough people running for the vacancies, then an exception can be made for a two-term board member to run again, without sitting for a year.
 - c. Voting shall be available for a minimum of (2) weeks immediately leading up to the election.
